

SUMMARY OF TELEPHONIC INTERVIEW

Applicant thanks the Examiner for the courtesy of a telephonic interview on April 27, 2007. The following summary is to provide a complete and proper recordation of the substance of the interview:

(A) no exhibit was shown or any demonstration conducted;

(B) claims 34 and 39 were discussed;

(C) no specific prior art was discussed;

(D) no amendments were proposed;

(E) applicant inquired as to whether the Examiner had considered selecting a buffer and transmitting a data unit as possible tangible result; the Examiner indicated that he had but that when claims to computer software are present it is Office policy to consider method and system claims only as implemented by a computer; without recitation of a computer performing the method there could be no tangible result;

(F) no other pertinent matters were discussed;

(G) no agreements were reached during the interview; and

(H) no part of the interview was conducted via electronic mail.
